Special Features:

Students who participate in Bishop England's Prep session enjoy many unique benefits that contribute to a successful high school experience. Some include the following:

- the chance to "learn the ropes" of a new campus
- group activities to enhance social interaction at a new school
- review of math skills relevant to freshman math
- review of English skills and basic grammar review; the Prep Session's English course can be especially helpful in reviewing grammar that students may not have had recently
- instruction in high school "survival" skills:
 - how to study and take notes
 - how to prepare for a high school test/exam
 - how to use the library and web site
 - how to avoid discipline problems at BEHS
 - how to achieve success in high school
